

Frederick James Van Vranken
Mister Mixers, LLC.

Brief Biography

Frederick James Van Vranken was Born in Brooklyn, NY August 19, 1937. Known as "Jim" by his family and friends, he currently resides in Wheeling, W.V. with his loving wife of 55 years, Gail Pierson Van Vranken. Jim and Gail have four wonderful children and stay busy keeping up with their five grandchildren.

Jim is Managing Director of Mister Mixers, LLC., Contracted exclusively by the top-rated mixing company; Charles Ross & Son., established in 1842.

Jim, a seasoned dispersion specialist, has a unique ability of listening to the customer, understanding their needs and finding the right solution.

Prior to branching off on his own in 2010, Jim was employed at Charles Ross & Son for 41 years. During Jim's professional sales career, he pioneered vacuum mixing technology, thereby influencing the growth of innumerable applications resulting in new and improved products across a myriad of industries. While working at Charles Ross & Son, Jim was consistently awarded the esteemed "Million Dollar Sales Award" for his determined effort in the development and sales of modern mixing technology.

When Jim is not working, he enjoys spending time with his family. He is an avid baseball enthusiast who would probably like to say he pioneered vacuum mixing technology AND the game of baseball, but for now, he will concede to the former mentioned and sit back and watch his favorite team - the St. Louis Cardinals.
